

31st Congress of the Rei Cretariae Romanae Fautores
“Marketing Roman pottery:
economic relationships between local and imported products”
Cluj-Napoca, Romania, 23rd-30th September 2018

Second circular

March 22, 2018

Dear Fautores, Friends and Colleagues,

We wish to thank you for your collaboration and interest in the 31st Congress of the Rei Cretariae Romanae Fautores, which will take place in Cluj-Napoca between September 23rd and September 28th 2018 (with two optional post congress excursions on Saturday, September 29th, and Sunday September 30th). We have received more than 180 preliminary registrations, with 85 lecture proposals and 58 posters. Registration is closed - so we will no longer accept further applications. The final list of lectures, as well as the provisional Congress programme, will be posted as soon as possible on the official site: <https://rcrfcluj2018.mnit.ro>.

1. Final registration submission

Please send us your final registration form accompanied by an abstract (both for posters and presentations) to the following e-mail address: rcrfcluj2018@mnit.ro, no later than May 31st 2018. Payments must also be made by the same date, May 31st.

2. Congress venue

The Congress will be hosted in the main building of the Babeş-Bolyai University by the Faculty of History and Philosophy, located in the city centre.

3. Programme

a. Lectures

The lecture proposals are currently undergoing selection by the Organising Committee. Since the number of proposals exceeds the limits of our schedule, some of the participants will kindly be asked to prepare a poster instead of an oral presentation. It must be emphasized that poster presentations are not a second-class option and that the request to present a poster rather than to give a lecture does not in any way demean the proposed topic. Rather, as always, priority will be given to those proposals most closely adhering to the main theme of the Congress and to those not suitable for presentation in poster form, as well as to those presented by members of the RCRF. The tight schedule also means that lectures must never be longer than 15 minutes, allowing 5 minutes for questions and discussions. It is helpful to make a practice run beforehand and to cut if necessary. Participants are encouraged to use PowerPoint presentations in support of their lectures. Please make sure that all the drawings and illustrations used in your presentation are visible (profile drawings should be filled and ceramic illustrations enlarged) and relevant for the discussed topic. Do not overload your slides – very many images crammed into a single slide will not be legible in the lecture room.

If possible, all the text and captions on your PowerPoint presentation should be in English, especially if you are planning to speak in another language.

The Congress languages will be English, German, French, Italian and Spanish.

b. Posters

The posters accepted for presentation will be on display during the Congress in the main corridor of the Faculty of History and Philosophy, in the central building of the Babeş-Bolyai University, with a poster session taking place on September 26th.

All posters must be designed in a portrait layout (vertical position), A0 size (84.1 cm × 118.8 cm). Useful information regarding the printing of posters in Cluj-Napoca prior to the Congress will soon be posted on the website, should you consider this possibility.

c. Provisional programme

The provisional programme, with all the accepted presentations, will be posted on the Congress website (<https://rcrfcluj2018.mnit.ro>) as soon as possible. Please carefully check your name and lecture or poster title. Should you notice any errors, immediately contact the organisers at the Congress e-mail address: rcrfcluj2018@mnit.ro.

4. Abstracts

The deadline for lecture and poster abstracts is May 31st 2018. Abstracts should be sent in Word format (.doc or .docx), must not exceed 300 words and should also include the following information: title and authors' details (names and contact addresses/e-mails). A summary of all the lectures and posters will be included in the abstract booklet given to all participants on arrival.

5. Publication in the Acta

Papers submitted for publication in the RCRF Acta, whether derived from posters or lectures, will undergo peer review, as always. The deadline for submission is December 30th, 2018. The guidelines are available on the RCRF website (http://www.fautores.org/pdf/RCRF-Acta_guidelines_2016.pdf). Please note that a copy of the Acta is not included in the Congress fee and members of the RCRF receive it as a benefit of their membership. Anyone else can order a copy from Habelt.

6. Accommodation

Participants should bear in mind that the Congress fee does not include the cost of accommodation. We will soon post on the website a number of hotels which will offer a discount for the Congress participants. Furthermore, there are many accommodation options in Cluj-Napoca that you can easily find and book on-line through the well-known booking sites. If you plan on joining us on the post-congress tours, you should book your accommodation in Cluj-Napoca for Saturday and Sunday as well. We will return to Cluj-Napoca from the trip to Ulpia Traiana Sarmizegetusa on the evening of the same day. The excursion to Potaissa/Turda will be over on Sunday, in the late afternoon or evening, when we will also return to Cluj-Napoca.

7. Excursions

Two one-day trips will be organised during the Congress. We will first visit the County Museum of History and Art at Zalău and the archaeological site at Porolissum on September 25th. The second excursion will take place on September 27th, when we will go to Alba-Iulia to visit the National Museum of Unification and take the tour of the three fortifications of the Alba Carolina citadel. The lecture session of that day will be hosted by the “1 Decembrie 1918” University from Alba Iulia. The buses will depart in the morning from the University and will return to Cluj-Napoca in the late afternoon or evening.

8. Post-Congress tour

The post-Congress tour will include two optional excursions taking place on September 29th and September 30th.

The first will take us to Ulpia Traiana Sarmizegetusa, where we will enjoy guided tours of the archaeological remains and of the local museum. A pottery display will also be organised. In the afternoon, we will visit the Hunyadi Castle at Hunedoara. This excursion requires an additional fee of 55 euros, which will include the travel cost, the coffee break and the lunch at Ulpia Traiana Sarmizegetusa and the guided tours of the two attractions. Participants must arrange for their accommodation in Cluj-Napoca.

On the second excursion we will go to Potaissa/Turda, where we will visit the fortress of the legio V Macedonica, The History Museum of Turda (including a pottery display), as well as the Turda Salt Mine – a unique Transylvanian monument. The additional fee of this excursion is 25 euros, covering the cost of transportation, the brunch at the History Museum and the guided tours of the three attractions. We will return to Cluj-Napoca in the late afternoon.

9. Congress fee

The Congress fee is 220 euros. This includes the Congress programme and abstract booklet, coffee breaks and lunches during the Congress, the festive dinner, as well as the trips to the County Museum of History and Art at Zalău, to the archaeological park at Porolissum and to Alba Iulia, with the visits to the National Museum of Unification and the tour of the three fortifications of the Alba Carolina citadel.
